

Awst/August:

10th 7 30 pm, An Evening with Jonathan Richards, Classical Guitarist, (look him up on the web!) An Evening with Jonathan Richards will be long remembered, the church by candlelight is a wonderful venue – and the acoustics make it even more so! Candle light and a glass of wine will add to the evening. Jonathans CD's available!

Medi/September:

13/14/15th, Get Stuck in Weekend, lots more action again needed! It the one chance in the year to move things forward and have fun too – try to keep the date free.

Tachwedd, November:

10th Sunday/Dydd Sul 10 30am, Remembrance at the War Memorial, Capel Curig, and other venues!

22nd Friday/Dydd Gwener 7 00pm, AUTUMN Lecture in the village hall, subject to be announced. We will be happy to receive suggestions.

23rd Dydd Sadwrn/Saturday, our 'Thank You' Medieval (??) Dinner, at the church following on from our successes in previous years, a very special evening. Details from Harvey.

29th Dydd Gwener/Friday Pre Christmas-Music Evening (to be confirmed), with Mynydd Llandegai Choir. Music by Candlelight. It was a real joy to listen to their songs, and to also join in lat year. They have a mixed repertoire allowing the singers to harmonise beautifully - it is nice to think that music of this nature would have been heard in the church for something like 500 years. A celebration to introduce Christmas!

Rhagfyr/December:

13th Dydd Gwener/Friday 7.00pm, 'Community get together' evening in Capel Curig, organised by Peter Smith. At Plas y Brenin, profits to charity, 3 course meal, All members and friends invited.

19th Dydd Iau/Thursday, Village Carol Evening Carols by Candlelight! A village celebration of Christmas, to be organised by the village.

Note Agenda and other information published elsewhere. If you live away why not make this a reason to have a weekend in Capel Curig?

At about 12: 00, A short presentation will be given by Pat Mowray Yates on 'Curiosity about the Celtic Saints- who they were – why they pursued their faith (The Age of Saints after the Romans). At 1 pm Lunch is available in the bar of the centre. 1 45 pm Taith prynhawn/Afternoon excursion, we will have an afternoon drive/ walk. This year we will be exploring more of the Conwy Valley, walking a section of our Heritage footpath and visiting the new Art Gallery outside Llanrwst. Tea will be taken there! For Dinner this year we are going to return to the Tyn y Coed Hotel in Capel Curig, – Ken Smith will be in charge! The cost will be variable – it depends what you order and eat! Byddwn yn aros am banad o de mewn man delfyrdol. Bydd y bwyd nos yn Westy Bryn Twrch am 7:30pm. All are welcome.

Ebrill/April:

19th—22nd Good Friday/Dydd Gwener – Easter Tuesday/Dydd Mawrth, The church will be open over the Easter weekend, 10 30 – 4 30 each day, Friday – Tuesday. Stewards needed! Come and see our church, we have further plans! There is always plenty of work yet to be done in the churchyard – if the weather cooperates! Also, inside the church we need to assemble an exhibition for the Easter opening. We will have on display in the church one of our exhibitions. During this weekend, if the weather permits, we will also be working on the churchyard on the Friday and Sunday morning. More details from Harvey.

28th The London Marathon. We have TWO runners running for the Friends of St Julittas, fantastic, They are Simon Parsons and David Lithgow from Leamington Spa striders, many thanks to Kate Disley for the organisation. Please support them through our Just Giving web site.

Mai/May:

No Spring Exhibition this year but there is lots to do for preperation for the summer months. Do you have any free time? And the grass will want cutting!

19th (about), A gathering for Silvia Disley to celebrate her 90th birthday. To be arranged in conjunction with the family.

Mehefin/June:

23rd Dydd Sul/Sunday 7 30pm, Our Alice and Hilda evening, Cegin Productions brings you a moving, amusing and enlightening shindig of spoken word and music. Poetry and prose on a wide variety of themes will be responded to and punctuated with music by Huw Warren who has been described by the Guardian as “one of the UK's truly independent spirits”. Further details from Ken Smith, 07960 722529 or 01982 517852.

Gorffennaf/July:

6th Sadwrn/Saturday, Capel Curig Show – the village summer show, please come and support our bookstall etc. etc – a good day to get involved, lots of fun free!! Please support the village! In addition, working weekend too at the church, what could be better - hope this is well supported!

27th/28th Friday/Dydd Gwener, Sadwrn/Saturday, Work Days at the church, in preparation for and based on the exhibition; come along and join in the fun of assembling an exhibition! Saturday will be based on a social gathering (not much work but lots of fun) , with a drop of fizzy wine and also perhaps a chance to learn a little about Frances and Harvey's trip to Nepal and Tibet.

28th Dydd Sul/ Sunday 3pm, Exhibition opening . Until Sunday 8th & then 13/14/15/ Gorffennaf/September. Our exhibition may be based on 'People and places of the Penrhyn estate – Capel Curig 1780-1930, the estate in the countryside'

We are proposing to make our next summer exhibition based on research into the interchange of the residents of Capel Curig and its surrounds with the owners of the Penrhyn Estate titled 'People and places of the Penrhyn estate - Capel Curig 1780 - 1930'. This will lead up to the publication of a booklet and website on the subject. Tea will be taken at Moel Siabod Café, Capel Curig. In the evening, at 6 30, there will be a presentation and lecture on a related topic, in Plas y Brenin. The bar in the centre will be open following the presentation. Again, we seek a large commitment from the committee and local people to volunteer as helpers and stewards, if you can spare some time please contact us. The exhibition will be co-ordinated by a committee, but we are very happy to co-op helpers who wish to be involved.
